Actions to Stop Doing

- Action to Stop 1: We need to establish fixed times for our scrum meetings. Currently, we are not conducting our scrum meetings as consistently as we should because we do not have a set time that works for everyone.
- Action to Stop 2: As a team member, If you have questions or are unsure of something, do not hesitate to seek help from the team. Often, someone within may have the a solution that you need. This can accelerate productivity in future sprints.

Actions to Start Doing

- Keep the Scrum Board up to date: The Scrum board is not up to date with who is working on which task. Although this has not caused any collisions in the work that will has been completed it may in the future.
- Cleaning up version control: Ensure the removal of unused branches to maintain a clean repository. Within your pull request, provide a detailed description of the features you have implemented, highlighting the contributions and changes made.

Actions to Keep Doing

- Working as a Team: When someone has a problem that is stopping them from proceeding with their tasks it is quickly resolved with the help of the Team.
- Communication: The Team is very effective in communicating what they have done and what they will get done during the Scrum meeting. In addition, our communication on Discord is working well for our team.
